Dear Dr. Pace:

Your survey package was passed to this office by the current Deputy Director of Central Intelligence, Robert M. Gates. We regret to inform you that the classified nature of our organization and the work we perform, prohibits us from participating in surveys such as yours.

For the record, we are returning the one dollar bill you sent to us in advance to complete your questionnaire. We are sorry that we are unable to participate in your survey.

Thank you for considering us in your research.
